Our Story

In a world that never stands still adaptability is our strength.

MOVA was born from decades of expertise in foam technologies, carrying forward a heritage of innovation and reliability. We exist to help businesses move faster, grow stronger, and prepare for what comes next.

We deliver more than foam. We deliver assurance in the form of high-performance and sustainable solutions that keep production efficient, product lines competitive and businesses ready for the future. From bedding and furniture to diverse industrial applications, our foams adapt seamlessly to support the evolving needs of manufacturers, distributors and brands throughout Southern Africa, including Zimbabwe, Botswana and Namibia.

At MOVA, innovation is never stationary. We continually evolve and co-create value with our partners through efficiency, agility, and trust.
